Your personal data will not be sold to third parties for advertising purposes.

Transfer of personal data to third countries

Prolight Diagnostics may transfer your personal data to countries outside the European Union (EU) or the European Economic Area (EEA). If your personal data is transferred to any country outside of the EU/EEA, Prolight Diagnostics will take the necessary steps to ensure that such data is transferred lawfully and that your personal data is processed in a secure manner and with a level of protection equivalent to that within the EU/EEA, for example by entering into the European Commission's standard contractual clauses with the recipient. If you wish to receive a copy of the standard contractual clauses, please contact us. Prolight Diagnostics' contact information is listed in the "Contact information" section below.

Regarding the personal data contained and processed on social media sites such as Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn, we refer users to the policies of each service for information on how they process personal data. According to Prolight Diagnostics, the purpose of the processing is to enable representatives of existing customers, potential customers and cooperation partners of Prolight Diagnostics to interact and liaise with Prolight Diagnostics via social media. This is to contribute to a good relationship with customers and cooperation partners. The processing is necessary for Prolight Diagnostics' legitimate interest in marketing its brand and products to existing and potential customers as well as to cooperation partners (legitimate interests).

How long is your personal data stored?

Your personal data is kept for as long as there is a need to keep the data to fulfil the purposes for which the data was collected in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Your data will then be deleted.

Certain personal data will, in order to comply with relevant accounting legislation, be stored for seven years, starting from the end of the calendar year in which the financial year to which the information relates ended.

Contact information of company representatives are stored for as long as Prolight Diagnostics deems it necessary to maintain the relationship with the company/organisation. Deletion shall take place when Prolight Diagnostics becomes aware that the data is no longer adequate or relevant for the purpose or at the request of the contact persons.

For more information about how long Prolight Diagnostics stores specific personal data, please contact Prolight Diagnostics. Contact information is provided in the section "Contact information" below.

How is your personal data protected?

We have procedures and working methods to ensure that your personal data is handled in a secure manner so that you can feel safe when you submit your personal data to us. Only persons who need the personal data to fulfil their work tasks and Prolight Diagnostics' commitments shall have access to personal data. Our security systems are designed with your privacy in mind, protecting your personal data against unauthorised access, alteration, and deletion. We will not disclose your data to anyone else, except as expressly stated in this Privacy Policy.

Your rights

Right to correction and deletion

You may have the right to request that your personal data be corrected or deleted. If Prolight Diagnostics does not have a legal basis to continue processing the personal data, it shall be deleted. You can request a correction when the personal data that Prolight Diagnostics processes about you is inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated.

Right to object and request restriction

You may have the right to object to how Prolight Diagnostics processes your personal data. In some cases, you have the right to request that the processing of your personal data be restricted so that Prolight Diagnostics may only process the personal data under certain conditions (this refers to handling other than storage).

Right to an extract from the register

You have the right to request extracts from Prolight Diagnostics and our registers/systems in which personal data about you are processed, and in such extracts be informed about which personal data about you that Prolight Diagnostics processes.

Right to data portability

Where personal data is processed with your consent or with the support of an agreement with you, you have the right to obtain your personal data in a machine-readable format and transfer the data to another data controller.

The right to submit a complaint to a supervisory authority

You have the right to submit a complaint about Prolight Diagnostics' processing of your personal data to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection, Box 8114, SE-104 20 Stockholm, Sweden.

You may also have the right to withdraw consent for any process that requires consent.

What happens if you do not provide your personal data to Prolight Diagnostics?

If you do not provide your personal data to Prolight Diagnostics, we will not be able to fulfil our legal or contractual obligations towards you. For Shareholders, this means you will not be able to exercise your rights as a Shareholder, including attending and voting at general meetings.

Changes

Prolight Diagnostics has the right to change the Privacy Policy at any time. Upon changes to this Privacy Policy, Prolight Diagnostics will publish the amended Privacy Policy on www.prolightdx.com with information about when the changes will take effect. Prolight Diagnostics may also inform customers and cooperation partners in an appropriate manner.

Cookies

Prolight Diagnostics uses techniques similar to cookies to provide certain functions on the www.prolightdx.com website, improve the website and deliver a better and more personal service. The information is stored as a file containing encrypted login-data.

Personal data manager and our assistants

Prolight Diagnostics is a personal data controller, which means that we are responsible for how your personal data is processed and that your rights are safeguarded, in accordance with applicable legislation.

Prolight Diagnostics has personal data assistant agreements with suppliers and cooperation partners, thereby ensuring that personal data is processed in accordance with this policy.

The central securities depository is the data controller for the processing of personal data in the central securities depository register.
